Dear Mr Zheng Huiwen,

Re: Accreditation by Accreditation Service for International Colleges (ASIC)

The ASIC Accreditation Committee has considered the Inspector's report for the interim accreditation of The Chinese Institute of Certified Financial Planners and I am pleased to confirm that the Committee has agreed to award interim accreditation to The Chinese Institute of Certified Financial Planners.

Interim accreditation is conditional upon ASIC receiving the accreditation process fees (if not already paid), together with the annual fee which is also now due.

Interim accreditation is for a period of up to 12 months when the final Stage 3 accreditation visit will be made with a view to approving full accreditation; the visit can occur at any convenient time within this period. Please liaise with the ASIC Office to make appropriate arrangements for this visit.

The accreditation will have to be reviewed four years from the initial confirmation of full accreditation. ASIC Inspectors may make an announced or unannounced visit to some accredited institutions during their period of full accreditation to check continued compliance with appropriate statutory requirements.

We look forward to working with you in the development of The Chinese Institute of Certified Financial Planners and shall be pleased to offer any help and advice you may require.

Best wishes for the future.

Yours sincerely

Prof. John Wilson Head of Accreditation
